Civil Defense Test Here Friday

Daly City participates this Friday morning at 11 o'clock in a nationwide Civil Defense alert drill to test its air horns which will sound the warning to residents if and when an attack occurs.

Promptly at 11 a.m. this Friday, the city's four air horns will blast out the two types of warnings which will be used in event of national emergency. Residents are urged to "go about their business" as usual, but to pay close attention to the horns in order that they will know what they mean in the future.

First sounds heard will be thirty long blasts of the four horns, signifying the alert. These will be followed by the attack warning itself, consisting of 30 short or rapid blasts, which means that residents should take cover.

The city's part in the exercise is coordinated by the local civil defense council and the police and fire departments.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy believes the four horns will be strong enough to warn the entire community. They are located at Company 5 Firehouse in Westlake, the City Hall, at Niantic and Citrus, and at 168 Werner street.

"Checkers" from both the fire and police departments will be stationed throughout the city to gauge the effectiveness of the horns.

City Manager Howard Stites indicates that Civil Disaster booklets, to be mailed to all homes here, will be ready after the first of the year. These pamphlets completely describe procedures to follow (evacuation routes, et cetera) in the city's civil disaster plan.

Emergency Radio Setup To Be Tops

Daly City's civil defense communications system will be the most efficient in the Bay Area, City Manager Howard Stites told members of the civil disaster council last week.

By utilizing the old police radio system, which has been replaced with new equipment, the civil defense frequency, yellow cab frequency and private "ham" radio operators, the city will be able to operate 13 separate communications stations, Stites revealed.

The civil disaster communications section, headed by Roy Foster, has been instructed to determine strategic location for the 13 stations throughout the city, each of which will be equipped with a radio.

The control center for all operations will be at the PG&E headquarters on Edgemar road. Some $2500 will be spent to equip the center, of which the federal government will pay half.

Stites said the 13 stations will be spotted throughout the city so that in event telephone service is out, citizens will still have some sort of communication within easy access of their homes. Stites pointed out that in event of disasters such as the March 22 earthquake, where many homes had gas leaks, residents would be able to reach the fire department in time to avoid serious damage, even though telephones were out.

The entire communications system and control center should be ready in about 90 days, Stites said. The city, which has budgeted some $1500 for its share in the control center and a civil disaster booklet, is awaiting federal approval of the local project.

The civil disaster booklet, geared to Daly City-Broadmoor needs, was given a final review by the disaster council last week and is now being printed. It will be distributed to every Daly City resident in January, Stites said.

The disaster council will meet again in January.

Florence Daly, Wife Of City's Founder, Dies

Funeral services Monday paid final tribute to Florence Smart Daly, widow of the man who founded Daly City as a pioneer homesteader.

Mrs. Daly died Saturday in Franklin hospital, after a long illness, at the age of 81. She had been hospitalized two years.

John D. Daly, the man after whom the city is named, was a partner with his wife's father, George Smart, in the Dairy Delivery Company, which later was sold to the Borden's corporation.

The Dalys were married in 1919. John died in 1923.

Mrs. Daly, an accomplished pianist and patron of the arts, was extremely prominent in Bay Area music circles. Before being hospitalized in 1955, she had lived at the Clift hotel for 15 years.

Cremation followed funeral services in the chapel of the Albert Brown mortuary, 3476 Piedmont avenue, Oakland.

Temple Ceremony Delayed By Rain

Bad weather Sunday forced postponement of the consecration service at Temple Judea's newly acquired site on Stanley drive near Junipero Serra boulevard.

The ceremony will be held this Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, with Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco the principal speaker.

Other speakers will be Charles Becker, president of the congregation; Dr. Sanford A. Marcus, congregation vice president, and Rabbi Irving F. Reichert.

If rain prevails again, the ceremony will be postponed until the following Sunday.

Broadmoor Opens Caroling Festival

An old-fashioned Christmas festival for residents of Broadmoor Village kicks off to a start this Friday with a colorful two-hour program which starts at 7:30 p.m. at the corner of 87th and Washington streets.

Sponsored by the Broadmoor Property Owners Association, the festival will continue each night through Christmas Eve, and will feature guest artists, a group caroling contest, Christmas messages from the village pastors, free refreshments, and community singing, according to Edward J. Lee, Association president.

Launching the festivities will be several of Broadmoor's pastors who will deliver brief Yuletide messages to village residents. Among the clergymen who have accepted the BPOA's invitation to participate in the opening ceremonies Friday night are the pastors of Hope Lutheran, Broadmoor Presbyterian, Holy Angels, Broadmoor Baptist churches, and Church of the Nazarene.

'Yield,' Sign Says

YIELD SIGNS, like this one at Eastgate drive in Westlake, have been installed on an experimental basis by the police department to help reduce traffic problems at "blind" intersections. Several signs, now used only to establish the right-of-way at these blind residential intersections, may be replaced by the yield signs if the latter devices prove effective. City of Berkeley pioneered the use of yield signs, which have the official sanction of the National Safety Council.

DONATIONS NEEDED

'Operation Santa Claus' Airs 11th Hour Appeal

Daly City's annual "Operation Santa Claus," pushed by individuals and groups wishing to bring a normal Christmas to underprivileged children and adults, has reached the 11th hour stage.

Donations thus far, in the form of old and new toys, groceries and clothing, haven't been as good as in years past, but the men in charge of the project are confident the slack will be taken up.

Fire station 5 in Westlake is the "depot" for all the items, which will be distributed by the Operation Santa Claus committee next Monday evening.

Persons having items for the underprivileged should take them to the Firehouse or call either Elmer Kennedy, fire chief, PL 6-0496, or Peter Markovich, chamber of commerce, PL 5-2262. Mailed checks addressed to both individuals' also are welcome.

The list of contributors and organizations sharing this good deed continues to mount. Doing the most thus far have been: St. Vincent DePaul Society, 7th Infantry Marines, Daly City-Colma Lions Club, DC Fire Department, DC Employees Association, Eagles Auxiliary, Westlake Catholic Men and Women's Clubs, DC Volunteer Firemen, Orin Bender (Town & Beach Tog Shoppe, almost $800 in clothing), Colvin of California (75 packages of food), DC Police Department, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, and Our Lady of Mercy Sodality.

MORGAN SHIFTS PROJECTIONS FOR STATE AID

By readjusting projected student population at Jefferson and Westmoor and the two planned Coast schools, the high school district today is approaching a final decision in making application early next year for state loans to finance the Sharp Park and Linda Mar plants.

Supt. Ed Morgan, reporting on another conference recently with state officials, presented his recommendations to the board for student assignments at the four schools, to bring the district up to its maximum square footage and therefore eligible for state aid.

Under the latest proposal, with enrollment by January of '61 forecast at 3714 students, the district would assign 1592 to Westmoor, 820 to Jefferson, 1079 to Sharp Park and just over 100 students to Linda Mar, in order to qualify immediately under square foot-

LEADERS of the county-wide campaign to combat pornographic literature and photographs gathered recently for their first meeting to plan solutions for protecting teenagers. Left to right: John Finigan, county chairman of the National Office for Decent Literature; Assemblyman Lou Francis, chairman of the State Assembly Legislative Committee on Pornographic Literature and Pictures; City Attorney Paul Hupf of Daly City, and Judge Thomas L. Bocci Jr., chairman of the Citizens Committee for San Mateo county.

Superior Court Sessions Start In S.S.F. February 14

Northern San Mateo county will have sessions of the superior court for the first time in its 100-year history, the board of supervisors decided Tuesday.

Superior Judge Frank Blum of Daly City will hold half-day sessions in South San Francisco on a twice-a-month basis starting February 14.

The special sessions, to be held on the second and fourth Fridays of the month, will be conducted to determine whether full-time sessions of the court will eventually be needed in South San Francisco. The chambers will be in South San Francisco city hall, where the municipal court now convenes.

Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci will be hearing cases in Daly City city hall on the days the superior court meets in his chambers.

Decision to hold court in the north county on a trial basis was made by supervisors after hearing recommendations of the North San Mateo County Bar Association and a board-appointed judicial committee.

Civil Service Exams

HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA REQUIREMENT EASED

City employees will be allowed to take promotional examinations even though they do not have a high school diploma, under a ruling made last week by the personnel board.

A high school diploma or its equivalent had been a requirement for promotional jobs. The new policy allows non-high school graduates to compete for promotional jobs and win appointment, providing they obtain the diploma or its equivalency sometime before the end of their six months probationary period.

Lists for five city positions were promulgated, and the appointments will be announced shortly.

Those on the lists, in order of finish, are:

Junior civil engineer — Leonard Rosenblatt, John Dailey.

Senior account clerk—Barbara Galindo, Wilma Riley, Gladys Asaro.

City electrical inspector — city electrician—Henry Weisner, Charles Marshall.

Librarian I — Rose Mary Kraus (only successful candidate).

Police sergeant—John Walsh, Philip La Bruzzo, Albert Conci, Matthew Murray Jr., Henry Sundermann, Richard Phillips, Charles Terry, James Sunderland, Lester Bastedo, James Bergstrom, Charles Munday, James Welsh.

City Yule 'Pageant' Thursday

Citizens are expected to turn out in family style this Thursday night for the annual Daly City Christmas Pageant and Open House at the War Memorial community center on Mission street.

Dee Van Nest, director of parks and recreation, reports that the community center will be "at its sparkling best" for the joint affair, which begins promptly at 7:30 p.m.

The War Memorial building finally is complete, a long-delayed though much urged project.

More than 250 Daly City school children, under the supervision of Director Muriel Vint, will sing traditional Christmas songs in chorus. This will be followed by the annual Yule concert of the Daly City municipal band, with George Brenner wielding the baton.

Musical portion of the big evening will be held first in the gymnasium. Open House, allowing residents to inspect every nook of the community center, begins at 8:45 p.m.

Plenty of seating will be available, and Van Nest expects the place will be filled to capacity.

"Come early and be assured of a comfortable seat," he urges.

DISTRICT COURT WEIGHS APPEAL OF FIRED COP

Dave Johnstone's appeal of his firing by the city council in May, 1955, was taken under submission by the district court of appeals Tuesday.

The latest in Johnstone's many legal efforts to have his job as police inspector restored took about 20 minutes, as city attorney Paul Hupf and John Fahey, representing Johnstone, presented their briefs.

The court will determine whether there was substantial evidence to justify dismissal of Johnstone "for association with known gamblers." Fahey has contended from the outset that Johnstone was fired on the basis of hearsay evidence.

Hupf reiterated evidence presented at earlier hearings, pointing out that Johnstone was instructed to investigate certain phone installations allegedly used for bookmaking operations, but delayed his investigation without notifying superiors.

Johnstone has battled the council's decision all the way and is seeking some $15,000 in back wages.

The court of appeals will render a written decision in early 1958.

Kidnap Suspect Held Over To Superior Court

Jerry W. Rogers, 31, arrested here December 1 following the abduction of a 9-year-old Daly City girl and her 4-year-old brother, waived preliminary hearing Tuesday in Municipal court and has been held to answer in superior court.

The San Francisco warehouseman, former inmate of Atascadero State Hospital, was remanded to the custody of the sheriff in lieu of $10,000 bail.

Charged with kidnaping and lewd and lascivious conduct, Rogers persuaded the two children to leave their parents' car while the latter were inside a Mission street restaurant.

A few minutes later, two Daly City policemen spotted Rogers' car at the foot of San Bruno mountain off Peoria street. Both children were unharmed. The girl said Rogers tried to unbutton her dress, however.

Broadmoor Reserves Host Children At Annual Yule Party

Broadmoor police reserves will hold their annual children's Christmas party Saturday at Benjamin Franklin school multi-purpose room.

Scheduled from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., the party is open to all youngsters of the area. Santa Claus will appear to pass out gifts, prizes and candy. A special movie will be shown.

Norton Remains President Of WIA Directors

Cass Norton, an importer who lives at 44 Parkwood drive, last week was re-elected president of the Westlake Improvement Association board of directors for 1958.

Other board positions:

Charles Santuccio, vice president; Edward Murphy, secretary; Bob Brachman, assistant secretary; Andrew Baffico treasurer; Glenn Zwicker, assistant treasurer, and William Silver, sergeant-at-arms.

Brachman and Silver are newcomers to the board. Norton, Murphy and Santuccio retain the same duties. Baffico was sergeant-at-arms, Zwicker the treasurer.

Thief Gets $470 In Bar Burglary

Tiny's Tavern, 6045 Mission street, the favorite target of armed robbers in the past few years, was victimized to the tune of $470 cash by a burglar early Wednesday morning last week.

Bartender John Marshall told police the intruder this time entered by kicking in a door on the east side of the building. The money was removed from a cigar box located inside the tavern's ice box.

Police are investigating several leads, knowing that the culprit was quite familiar with the inside layout of the establishment.

Cop's Son Learns Law Is Impartial

Steve Van Otten, 19-year-old son of a Daly City police officer, is due a traffic citation this week for leaving a mail truck with its motor running Friday afternoon, a move that resulted in the vehicle smashing into a garage door at 147 Bepler street.

Employed as a temporary Christmas driver, young Van Otten said he parked the vehicle to deliver packages up the street. He turned around just in time to see the truck roll backwards, jolting the home.

Damage to both truck and the garage door was moderate, according to the accident report.

Gas Station Thief Makes $124 Haul

Paul Powers, new owner of the Union Gas Station at 6989 Mission street, was hit by a $124 burglary Thursday morning last week as a thief used a pass key to raid the station.

Taken from the office were 23 credit cards, 24 quarts of oil and two recapped tires.

Powers said he hadn't had time to change the door locks since becoming owner of the station.

pageantry is a caroling contest among adult and youth groups, who will compete for $200 in cash prizes for the winners' favorite charities. Preliminary performances are scheduled for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights, with the final judging scheduled to take place Monday night. Winners will return Christmas Eve to present a brief Christmas concert at the festival site.

On the entertainment side, the BPOA has lined up groups and individuals to provide intermission numbers.

Guest artists Friday night are the United-Aires, 18-man choral group made up of United Air Lines employees, and the 25-piece Daly City Municipal Band, directed by George Brenner, which is appearing through a grant from the recording industries' trust funds of Local No. 6 of the American Federation of Musicians, AFL-CIO, and extension of the federation's public service program.

Saturday night will feature dancers from the Voreyer Studio of the Dance, and taking the spotlight as guest performer Monday will be Robert Allan Stein, 10-year-old boy soprano.

Several details have been arranged by festival officials to add touches of color and comfort to the pageantry.

The festival site, already decorated with a life-size display of The Nativity, will be provided with bonfires to warm carolers and audience. Seating facilities also will be provided, as will free coffee, doughnuts and hot chocolate.

The coming pageant, expected by BPOA officials to develop into an annual event, replaces the Association's house decoration contest during the holidays. Activities at the festival site will last from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. during each of the pageant nights.

In case of rain, during any of the festival evenings, activities will be transferred to the multi-purpose room of Garden Village school.

Pay Phone 'Clouted'

Telephone booth at the Chevron Service Station, 2446 Junipero Serra boulevard, was jolted late Sunday night by a vandal who ripped off the upper section of the phone and broke into the coin box. Dick Latmer, station owner, reported the incident to police.

Six radio stations in the San Francisco - Oakland Metropolitan Area broadcast programs in foreign languages.

Christmas vacations. One of the Acapulco-bound passengers aboard the Lurline (for its maiden voyage to the Mexican resort) will be DOROTHY DUNCAN, high school district secretary. Dorothy is sort of going south, like the swallows.

Switchboard operator at city hall last week reported one "unusual" call. Adult male phoned: "Give me the police department. I'm going to blow up city hall."

He didn't wait for the cops to get on the blower. Was he a jester or just a psycho?

Postmaster VINCE MURPHY, chamber - of - commerce dignitary and veteran Lion, turned deep purple recently when two wrong-address letters were returned to his desk.

Both missiles, authored by Murphy, were sent on behalf of local committee trying to get TV's Hugh O'Brian here for a "Wyatt Earp" day. O'Brian's booking agent apparently is housed elsewhere.

Colma pioneer THOMAS CALLAN, the county supervisor, and wife ELISABETH have written a $100 check for the Police Athletic League to help get the show on the road. The Callan donation, we're told, is the biggest lump sum from an individual to date. Anyone else interested in the youth of our community?

That man again, BEARTRACKS MACK, Daly City's top hobo, pulled a switch Tuesday before Judge Bocci in muni court.

Hauled in on his umpteenth drunk charge, old Henry fought for his rights. He pled "not guilty" and demanded a jury trial.

Beartracks changed colors moments later and settled for 30 days in the clink after hizzoner informed that the jury trial wouldn't be possible until February — and Henry would have to stay in jail up to that time.

Anyway, the Christmas chow at the county cooler ain't bad.

Brownies Complete Hospital Scrapbooks

Troop 324 Brownies have completed their since-summer project on scrapbooks to be presented on Christmas to children at Shriners' hospital.

"Busy bees" on the project were Debby Byrne, Lynne Coleman, Susan Ertola, Patti McGue, Ann Pinkus, Cheryl Samarzich, Cheryl Thomason, Diane Ulley and Gabby Whitney. Mrs. Samarzich and Mrs. Hansen are troop leaders.

age allowances in the four-year projection.

But under the allowable five-year projection for sites, the district now can assign on paper 1482 students to Linda Mar, since the projection of district enrollment by that time is 4793 students. This "on paper" excess, brings the district up to full eligibility now for state funds.

Morgan said the latest readjustments of students to the schools will increase the district's eligibility to 88,976 square feet. With the increase in enrollment each year (more students and less space per student), the district will become eligible for more aid.

"We aren't sacrificing our classroom program by any means," Morgan pointed out. "We certainly will be on an austerity program, however."

In order to accomodate more students and qualify for state eligibility, certain portions of Westmoor will be partitioned to increase the enrollment by about 380 students, pending opening of the Coast schools.

Adults Get Top Driving Lessons At Night School

A course in how to drive an automobile intelligently and safely is being offered again this year to adult students at Jefferson High school.

Driver training classes, in which students will receive a minimum of 6 hours of actual behind-the-wheel driving instruction, are made possible by the loan to the school of a new Chevrolet by Gateway Chevrolet.

This on-the-road training serves as a supplement to the classroom instruction in driver education. The classroom phase familiarizes a person with the natural and man-made laws governing the operation of operating a motor vehicle and gives him a thorough background in the responsibilities and requirements of driving.

John J. Ivan, night school supervisor, announces that Louis J. Martin is the instructor for the class.

Driver training students learn healthy attitudes toward safety and achieve an understanding of the rights and privileges of other motorists, according to the CSSA. Technical ability in handling a car is only part of the important process of learning to drive in a mature and responsible manner, the AAA motoring organization maintains.

Adult Committee For OLPH Scout Troop Announced

Adult committee of Boy Scout Troop 243 for 1958 was announced today by a spokesman for the unit, sponsored by the Our Lady of Perpetual Help Men's Club.

Following were elected: Edward Ciabattari, chairman, secretary and treasurer; Sam Calavano, camping; Henry Brown, advancement; George Fair, financial activities; William Loughner, transportation; John Mahoney, institutional representative; Arthur Ramos, programs and entertainment; Ralph Hall, committee man; Harry Hettle, Scoutmaster; Stanley White, assistant Scoutmaster, and Joel Cook, Explorer advisor.

First Troop event of the new year will be a light bulb sale to help finance a weekend in the snow, scheduled the first part of February.

CSM Students Have Busy Pre-Holiday Christmas Schedule

Classes at the College of San Mateo discontinue for the Christmas holidays this Friday to reconvene on January 6.

During the week of December 16-20 the Christmas spirit prevailed when campus clubs held parties and the faculty met in a series of no-host luncheons in the faculty dining room at Coyote Point Campus.

President and Mrs. Julio L. Bortolazzo were hosts to the College faculty and staff at an informal reception at College House on Wednesday.

The Art Department will hold the semi-annual exhibit of student work, with special emphasis on Christmas decorations and card design this Thursday evening and from 10 to 5 o'clock on Friday.

The Associated Students traditional assembly will feature the CSM A Cappella Choir on Friday.

Final pre-holiday gaiety will be Mistletoe Magic, the Associated Women Students semi-formal dance held at the Bellevue Hotel in San Francisco on Saturday.

Christmas giving has already begun by campus clubs. The Veterans Club has gathered toys for the Toys for Tots project and the Cosmetology Club has decorated a tree and supplied Christmas gifts for a family selected by the San Mateo County Welfare Department.

'Musical' Burglar Invades Clubhouse

Twenty-seven 45 rpm phonograph records were stolen from the juke box in the Westlake Clubhouse, 95 South Mayfair, Wednesday night last week, according to police.

Mrs. Alyce Shea, WIA secretary, said the thief must have picked the lock on the front door since there were no signs of forced entry.

Jay Irick, skipper of the Sea Scout unit which met in the building earlier that evening, discovered the loss when he returned to the clubhouse and spotted the front door wide open.

USO Asks Folks To Invite GI's To Xmas Dinner

Christmas can be the loneliest day of the year if you're far away from family and home. Just ask any serviceman or woman who won't be getting home Christmas day this year. But there is something that can be done to make their holiday happier.

Bay Area families are urged by the USO to invite a serviceman or woman into their home for Christmas dinner. A visit or a phone call to any San Francisco USO club is all that is necessary to make arrangements for a military guest on Christmas day.

Every effort will be made by the USO junior hostesses to "match interests" such as home state, religion, hobbies, etc., between the civilian and his serviceman guest.

You are urged to call early so that arrangements for home hospitality can be made before December 25.

USO clubs in San Francisco are: USO-YWCA, 966 Market street, PR 6-1625; Embarcadero USO, 166 Embarcadero, EX 2-2191, and National Catholic Community Service, 70 Oak street, HE 1-1575.

Crippled Youth In Video Title Role Saturday On KPIX

Bruce, a 10-year-old boy under treatment at Shriner's Hospital for Crippled Children, will have the title role in a television program this Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. No acting is called for. He will just be himself, "The Boy Who Wanted To Play Football," on House Call, a series presented by the Educational Department of KPIX in cooperation with the San Francisco Medical Society, the Health Council of the San Francisco Community Fund, and several health agencies.

Given his choice of players on the East and West teams, Bruce unhesitatingly asked for Tom Flores, the College of the Pacific star, to appear on the program with him.

Bruce is one of the few football experts who predict a West victory in the East-West Game, but he has the solid backing of the other young patients at the hospital.

This House Call program will originate in Shriner's Hospital. The Chief Surgeon, Dr. Frederic Bost, will introduce Bruce and his fellow patients, and show what the doctors, nurses and therapists do for these crippled children — a work largely supported by the East-West games, and entirely supported by the Shriners of Northern California.

An interesting part of the program will be Christmas activities in the hospital, particularly the preparations by the Mt. Davidson Lodge for the annual Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremonies.

Olympia-Vista Mar

This Thursday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock the students of Olympia and Vista Mar school will present a program of Christmas Carols for parents and friends. Among the songs to be heard will be Deck the Halls, Good King Wenceslas, Tannenbaum, and Adeste Fidelis.

The integral aspects of teaching have in no way been omitted. Rather, they have been strengthened by observing the first and second grade classes of Mrs. Lea Fox and Mrs. Anne Byerly. Within the confines of these particular classrooms an experimental language of German and Spanish are being taught with much success.

Mrs. Jean Oberlander started the ball rolling for the more abled child by inaugurating a program entitled "Problem of the Week," in the areas of science and arithmetic, whereby weekly problems are presented to stimulate and utilize the scientific method in solving problems in the above mentioned subject area.

KEEP CHRISTMAS TREES SAFE

Fires across the nation killed 23 persons, most of them children, on Christmas eve last year.

All but 10 of the victims were children, awaiting the excitement of Christmas morning.

Will it happen again this year, asks Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy.

It is tragic that a Christmas tree, symbol of joy and typifying the yuletide season, is the cause of so many accidental deaths from fire.

But most Christmas trees are potential fire hazards, full of pitch and resin—among the most combustible substances known.

Chief Kennedy offers a few words of advice to help keep Christmas safe from fire.

First, he says, select a small tree. It's less dangerous than a large one. Don't set the tree up until a few days before Christmas. Place it in the coolest part of the house, away from fireplaces and radiators. Stand it in water, or use a live tree planted in a tub of earth.

Never use untreated cotton or untreated paper for the decoration on or around the tree. Do not put electric trains under the tree. Use only electric lights, never candles. Throw away all gift wrappings as soon as the gifts have been opened. Turn off the lights when leaving the home.

Lastly, when needles start to fall after Christmas, take the tree down and discard it.

Don't let carelessness take the joy out of your holidays.

With

Maxine Tebeau

"An Affair to Remember," the Junior Prom, was presented last Friday night and proved to be one of the most successful dances of the year at Jeff. The music was supplied by the Howard Frederic band, and the cafeteria was decorated with huge icicles and snowflakes. A twelve-foot Christmas tree with angel hair on it was in the center of the floor.

Refreshments consisting of punch and cookies were served by the PTA.

The December 13 issue of the Totem Pole was a special edition on tuberculosis. The stories in the paper were based on "How Can We Wipe Out T.B. In Our Town" and "Your Future in A Health Career. The Totem Pole staff won the plaque for the best entry last year in competition with all the high schools in San Mateo county.

The Spanish Club has finished its bean bag and octopus project and will now send the toys to the San Francisco County hospital for distribution in the children's ward.

Petitions for student body offices will be given out on January 13, and the elections will be held on January 24. Nominations for class officers will be held in the home rooms on January 27.

The Jefferson students are looking forward to their Christmas holidays which begin December 21 and end with the return to school January 6.

Boy Soprano In Broadmoor Xmas Festival

Robert Allan Stein, 10-year-old soprano, will be featured as a guest soloist when the Broadmoor Property Owners Association climaxes its five-night Christmas festival next Monday, December 23, at the corner of 87th and Washington streets.

A sixth grader at Benjamin Franklin school, Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Stein, of 43 Windsor drive, Daly City, specializes in liturgical music and has made several appearances before Bay Area church and youth groups. His offerings Monday night will be two popular Christmas numbers, "O, Holy Night" and "Ave Maria."

The youthful soprano has a busy holiday schedule, with appearances scheduled before the San Francisco Boys Club, when this group holds its annual Christmas dinner for club officials this Friday, December 20, at Nourse Auditorium of the old Commerce High school. Robert is a member of the Haight Street Boys Club.

A few days later, the Westlake youth will appear as soloist during the dedication dinner to be held by Temple Judea. Post-holiday plans for the talented singer include rehearsals for a role in "The Magic Flute," a presentation of the children's opera group.

Camera Is Stolen

Mrs. Lorraine Vivell, 46 Bel Mar avenue, Sunday reported the theft of a 35 mm Kodak camera and case from her car, parked in an unlocked garage at the rear of the building.

Israel Army Vet To Speak Here

On December 26 at 8 p.m., Morton Levinson will speak to the members and friends of the Men's Club of Temple B'nai Israel, 67 Los Banos avenue in Daly City. His lecture will be devoted to his own experiences as a soldier in the Israeli Army.

Levinson, a business insurance broker, volunteered for duty in 1948 with the Haganah. He fought in the Galelee campaign during Israel's War of Liberation. The unique feature of his service is that he was the youngest American volunteer serving.

After duty in Israel, Levinson became a member of the US Army with the assignment of food inspector in Paris. It was during that time that he re-visited Israel and found a good basis for comparison with earlier times.

President Hartmann urges anyone interested in this lecture to attend. Refreshments will be served.

2 LOCAL SAILORS PARTICIPATE IN FLEET EXERCISE

Larry M. Mulligan, fireman apprentice, of 331 Heathcliff drive, aboard the frigate USS Wilkinson, and Jerome T. Brewer, seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Brewer of 98 Wilshire avenue, and husband of the former Miss Coral J. Roff of Hungry Horse, Montana, on the staff of the Commander of Carrier Division 17, participated in a Striking Force training exercise (Strikex), with the First Fleet off the coast of Southern California December 3 to 6.

The operation emphasized the latest and most modern tactics in air and guided missile strikes against land mass, air defense, antisubmarine and replenishment operations.

Fourteen thousand personnel and 37 ships of the First Fleet participated, as well as carrier and land based aircraft from Southern California bases.

Westmoor Girls Model Own Work In Fashion Show

Mrs. Alberta Carlen's clothing class modeled their own creations in Westmoor's first fashion show of the school year.

Parents, faculty, and invited classmates of the students attended this affair which was held in the home economics room of Westmoor on December 5. With fine poise and grace accompanied by soft music, the girls displayed their projects. For many it was their first sewing attempt. Sonia Pung and Barbara Fisher, clothing students were commentators.

Popuar with the students as evidenced by modeling was the straight skirt which appeared in brown, violet and charcoal. The overblouse, and the classic blouse were favorite toppers for these shirts. Versatility of the blouses was shown as an overblouse was used over toreador pants and the classic blouse with three-quarter sleeves and stand up collar was displayed with full skirt. A few girls modeled jumpers—white corduroy sheath and brown checked shirtwaist dress also demonstrated the dual of such outfits.

The sheath dress, so popular with teenagers for dated appeared in many colors: baby blue, white ,black, and Chinese print. Taking the opposite stand were others with full skirted date dresses in white cotton and printed polished cotton. Following the show, students served refreshments which they had prepared. Ribbon sandwiches, tea cakes, and a variety of cookies appeased all appetites.

Students who participated in the show were: S. Pung, A. Bouly, E. Lovelady, L. Antoni, C. Hawkins, P. Corrigan, K. Wilson, M. Luce, M. Young, E. Cortesi, S. Bopp, J. White, J. Thorton, D. Cooper, J. Herr, D. Marquart, L. Glazier, G. Durham, B. Fisher, T. Cubillo, S. Taylor, N. Swinger, T. Loftus, B. Johnson, B. Bryant, M. Duval, V .Porras, W. Butler, C. Cramer, M. Camelli, and B. Feliciano.

Jeff Elementary Glee Club Sing Carols For PTA

The Jefferson Elementary school Glee Club presented their annual program of Christmas carols for the pleasure of parents and friends in the multi-purpose room of the school on Tuesday evening, December 3, at the conclusion of a short PTA business meeting.

The theme, "What Christmas Means," was narrated by Charles Warren, Robert McLeod and Jane Nave — sixth grade students. Mary Jean Marchetti, fifth grader, was the soloist. The program was under the direction of Mrs. P. Hackett, vocal director, and Mrs. Muriel Vint was the accompanist.

Mrs. Ray Lagomarsino, hospitality chairman, assisted by Mrs. A. Martinelli and fifth and sixth grade "helpers," served refreshments.

'Chanukah-Christmas' Rabbi's Topic Friday At Sabbath Services

"Chanukah and Christmas—What They Should Mean to the Jew," will be the topic of Rabbi Irving F. Reichert of Temple Judea at Sabbath services this Friday evening, 95 South Mayfair avenue. Mrs. Reichert will kindle the Sabbath lights.

Members are reminded that time is limited to make reservations for the Sisterhood's Chanukah dinner, scheduled this Sunday, starting at 5 p.m., at Roberts-At-The-Beach.

The dinner is offered at a cost of $3.75 for adults, $1.50 for children. In charge of seating for the affair is Mrs. Philip C. Markinson, LO 4-6747.

Reservations may be made by calling: Mrs. Max Rudorfer, PL 6-3530; Mrs. Charles Wine, PL 6-1783, or the Temple Office, PL 5-6362.

Brownies Exchange Christmas Presents At Troop 106 Party

Brownie Troop 106 held its annual Christmas party Monday at Holy Angels' parish hall, featuring all mothers in attendance and a special play, written by Troop Leader Mrs. T. Dillon and performed by the girls.

The girls exchanged gifts and enjoyed refreshments under the supervision of Mrs. Dillon and co-leaders Mrs. A. Uccelli and Mrs. S. Lockie.

Girls participating were: Debbie Bocci, Elizabeth Burke, Pamela Bovero, Christine Casentini, Kathy Clark, Nancy Dillon, Laura Graziani, Margaret Lockie, Carole Matgen, Theresa MacDonald, Jean Merlo, Carol Milder, Janice Teeter, Maribeth Tracey, Janice Uccelli and Patricia Woods.

Xmas Party Plans, November Results Told By Pack 84

Cub Pack 84 is planning a big Christmas party, but the date of the fete was not known at press time.

The Pack's November meeting featured several awards. Wolf badges were earned by Victor Aiello, Dean Taylor, James Hess, Edward Fitzgerald and James Henderson. David Robertson received gold arrows for his Wolf badge, and Lee Williams and Rex Arnott got silver arrows in the same category.

Other awards: Bear badges—Gregory Valan, Ronnie Clyne and Kenneth Moseley. Gold arrows—Jim Fitzpatrick, Ronnie Clyne and Kenneth Moseley, also a silver arrow for Clyne.

Lion badges went to James Manning, Dick Crofton and John Arnott. A gold arrow was presented to Michael Land.

Jim Northrup, Michael Land and John Sirianni accepted Denner stripes. Assistant Denner stripes were handed to Ronnie Harrison and Gordy Kullberg.

One-year pins went to Jim Northrup, Lee Williams, David Somers, Jim Spaulding and Peter Alba. Billy Eagleton and Steve Durand received two-year pins.

Entering the Webelos Den were David Dempsey, James Manning, Dick Crofton and Jim Spaulding.

A Den Mother's pin was given to Doris Arnott.

Dorothy Spaulding accepted a one-year Den Mother's pin, and Sam Rizzo received a two-year pin.

Welcomed to the Pack were newcomers Stephen Myers, Douglas Babson and Lee Ecker.

Den 9 presented the colors, while Den 10 staged a skit, entitled "A Day In The Forest."

Two Big Meetings Slated This Week For Scout Leaders

Two important meetings for Lake Merced-Westlake area Scouting leaders are scheduled for this week, according to Frank Blum, district vice chairman.

Leaders and interested parents of all the area's Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Explorer Posts will gather for a program planning session in the regular Round Table session at Aptos Junior High this Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. In the Boy Scout section of the meeting, the 1958 Scout Camp kits will be distributed, containing vital new material for the campership activity.

Scout Leaders training courses, under the direction of the training chairman, Jay Christians, will enter the third session at Frederic Burk school (adjacent to the southwest corner of S. F. State College campus) this Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Enthusiastic parents who have turned out for the training are getting a wealth of Scouting know-how, Christians reports, but there is still time for additional adults who are interested in the future of the district's youth to enroll in the course.

WINNER, THIRTEENTH AAA TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

City's 'First Lady' Rivals Muttnik With Santa Claus Caper

What with Muttnik hogging the international headlines, it's logical that Santa Claus could be replaced by a canine.

"Lady," a proud German Shepperd owned by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Panages, 95 Fleetwood drive, has some real dandy Christmas presents for anyone interested, preferably the kiddies.

Last week she had her first litter—eight beautiful puppies. In true Yule spirit, the Panages are given away the brood free—on the first come, first served basis.

Number to call is PL 6-1468. Just ask for the "Lady" of the house.

Ram Tales

by Ron Bosc

The Annual Class sponsored a sock dance recently during lunch. The music was played by our school band and conducted by Mr. Reynolds, music teacher, who did a wonderful job. Admission was a receipt of a yearbook or 10 cents. The Annual Staff has also done a swell job selling and making plans for our yearbook which will be one-quarter finished by December.

There's something about a teacher that tells you he's one. That's Mr. Barrows, one of Westmoor's teachers, who drives a motor scooter to school everyday. Only when it rains does he make Mrs. Borrows drive him to school in their Volkswagen (I guess they like things small)! But it is cheaper because he gets an average of 100 miles per gallon, compared to the normal 13 miles per gallon and has only used 60 cents worth of gas so far.

The GAA (girls sports) has been divided into different teams for softball. The team that wins the most games will get a reward which is a G.A.A. triangular emblem.

We had a terrific cross-country squad this fall, winning three championships. They won the varsity dual meet, varsity league meet, and junior varsity league meet. The frosh-soph took third in the dual meet and fourth at the final league meet. The Jefferson Indians fell before the Rams by a score of 23-35. The champs who brought Westmoor these great honors were John Blake, Bruce Ryner, Ed Dowall, Mike Young, Bob Nolli, Rick Burnham, Phil Anderson and Gordon Kvamme.

The home-making classes recently held a fashion show and approximately 40 students and parents attended. Students modeling clothes were: Carol Craner, Elsie Lovelady, Wilma Butler, Mary Lou Duval, Nora Swinger, Tomi Toftus, Sandy Taylor, Barbara Bryant, Barbara Feliciano, Thelma Cubrillo, Vivian Porres, Judy Herr, Diane Cooper, Madeline Canelli, Jackie Collum, Ellen Cortesi, Diane Marquardt, Marsha Young, Sandy Bopp, Caren Hawkins, Shirley Durham, Lynn Antonio, Nadin Caruso, Juliet Mirabel, Peggy Sihra, Pat Bowers, Judy White, Toni Boule, Marian Luce, Karen Wilson, Leslie Glazier, Judy Thorton, Nancy Cazeraca, Pat Corrigan, Betty Johnson and Charolette Hensley. Narating the program were Barbara Fisher and Sonia Pung with the help of their teacher, Mrs. Carlon.

The Juniors have about finished working on their Junior Prom, "Rhapsody in White," to be held this Friday night. The dance will be from 8:30 to 11:30 and the dress will be semi-formal. The committee: ticket selling advisor, Mr. Kaufeldt; co-chairmen, Linda Wells and Barbara Mitchell. Decorations advisor, Miss Shea; co-chairmen, Carol Fich and Allene Downey. Publicity, co-chairman, Joan Westerland, and general advisor, Mr. Simon. All juniors are looking forward to this occasion.

Westmoor's Senior Ball will be held May 29 at the Sir Francis Drake in downtown San Francisco. It wil be formal and will probably be the most extravagant dance we ever attended. A recent pole was taken to see how much the dance would cost for a boy, and the figure was at least $40 or $50. For the girls, $80 or $90 including formals, jewelry, etc. So all seniors are saving their money.

Bells are ringing at Westmoor and everyone loaded with Christmas spirit. Practically every club in the school is trying to do its share in boasting up the Christmas spirit: The West Tri Y is making bean bags for San Francisco's Children's Hospital; the Girls Block W is going to teach cheers to the children at the Shriners Hospital for the East-West game, and everyone in the school is bringing a present to put under the tree in the main hall, to be sent to some needy organization.

The scientists of Westmoor recently journeyed to Capuchino High for a lecture by Dr. J. Waverly of the Standard Oil Research Laboratory on "Automation." Among those attending were: Jim Lansing, John Edminister, Bill Sheary, and Jim Vladyka. Sheary Sisk reported on the activities of the Cap Science Section as did Bob Doane of Westmoor.

Persons-To-Person

The Sophomores really have been making progress with their assembly. The theme will be a person to person skit with Edward R. Peapicker as host, interviewing a scientist and a time machine. The assembly will be presented two weeks after Christmas vacation and all the Sophomores are certain it will be a great success.

Bucky Hyers, Student Body President, recently attended four meetings of the Rotary Club and at the end gave a speech of what experience he had gathered from them. Each month a new person is picked to attend these meetings so next month it will be Scott Parker, Commissioner of Clubs.

Thirteen students have had winning essays in the National Essay Association Contest. The prize is a certificate and the publishing of their essays in the American Essay Anthology entitled "Young America Speaks." We still expect more winners from other essay contests which are being worked on by all the English classes.

Seniors will soon be seen in the halls without passes. Why? because we're getting Senior Privilege Cards which will entitle us to certain activities. All Seniors who qualify will receive these cards.

If you know any merchant interested in an advertisement to be put in our school yearbook, please get in contact with the school.

The P.T.A. dinner was a great social and financial success with approximately 431 adults and children attending. The faculty won the basketball game, but it was mighty close, and they couldn't have done it if it weren't for one or two certain teachers. But the varsity made up for it by winning against Serra High the following week, by a score of 31 to 29.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

"Tiger at the Gates" is the current Actor's Workshop presentation at the Marines' Theater, Sutter and Mason, and is scheduled for only six Friday and Saturday evenings.

A brilliant satirical comedy by the great modern French playwright Jean Giraudoux, superbly translated by Christopher Fry, "Tiger" is set against the classic background of ancient Troy, just prior to the fatal war. The basic story and its characters are familiar, and knowing from the beginning how it is going to end heightens the feeling of the inevitability of war.

War has always had a fascination for man, says Giraudoux in his beautifully rounded phrases. It has long been his inevitable destiny and it always will be. No matter how wise some may be and how deeply they may desire peace, there will always be those willing, even eager, to open the gates and let in the tiger Destiny that awaits outside.

Sleeping Tiger

Should the tiger be sleeping, there will always be some to prod him a bit by stirring words and martial hymns, and in dire circumstances an inflammatory incident can be arranged. And there is the stupid, the born audience for the war songs, the atrocity stories, and deaf, dumb and blind to what wiser men are trying to do.

It is a fine production with impressive sets by James Stearns, and James McMillan's lighting adds its customary imaginative touch. Even the minor roles are handled with care.

We regret space permits mention of only a few of the large, outstanding cast: George Baron is a devastatingly handsome young Paris; Priscilla Pointer plays his bubble-headed Helen with a fascinating walk, but with speech and mannerisms just a bit too reminiscent of MM; Robert Symonds as Demokos, poet and leader of the Senate, is a suitably pompous creature.

Noble Hector

Winifred Mann is the despairing Andromache and Margaret Doyle and the practical Hecuba. We doubt that Cassandra would have made her bitter comments as humorously as did Norma Jean Wanvig, but that is a minor point.

The play is dominated by Hector who has outgrown war, and Joseph Miksak plays him nobly. Only once is his power over a scene threatened. In his verbal duel with Ulysses, George Hitchcock's seductive voice tips the scales on the side of the Greek Hero.

"Tiger" is profound without being obscure, grave without being gloomy; it is a bitterly humorous, tragic comedy, great theater in its most majestic form.

B'nai Israel Fetes

Sabbath and Chanukah services will be held at Congregation B'nai Israel this Friday, 67 Los Banos avenue at 8:15 p.m. Rabbi Solomon Shore will officiate and the topic of his sermon will be "Our Maccabees of Today."

Several students of the Hebrew school will participate in the service. They are: Stuart Silen, Foster Goldstrum, Dale Hart, Howard Bressler, Michael Hartmann, David Pava, David Podolsky, Michael Adler, Robert Rubin, Barney Penkowsky, Helen Lichtman and Linda Seigel.

Sisterhood Sets Chanukah Dinner

The sisterhood of Congregation B'nai Israel, The Daughters of Israel, will hold a Chanukah dinner this Sunday, December 22, at 7 p.m. Chairman of the event, Mrs. Reuben Pinkus, announces that a short Chanukah service led by Rabbi Solomon Shore will precede the dinner. A turkey dinner "a la Chanukah" will be served.

An enjoyable musical program will be presented, and the highlight of the evening will be the installation of officers of the Congregation. Installed will be Reuben Pinkus, president; Paul Lichtman, vice-president; Bernard Rubin, treasurer; Gary Kroner, Morton Debrow, Jack Beiss, Ernest Hartmann and Sig Adler, trustees.

President, Mrs. Jack Beiss, reminds members and friends of the congregation that a rummage sale will be held in January. Chairman is Mrs. Ted Silen. She may be contacted for rummage pick-up by calling PL 5-3561. Proceeds of the sale will go to the Sunday school.

VISIT KGO STUDIOS

61 Garden Village Fifth Graders Get 'Behind The Scenes' TV Tour

A familiar yellow bus from the Jefferson Elementary School District pulled up in front of KGO-TV studios on Golden Gate avenue last week. Out trooped 61 excited fifth-grade youngsters from Garden Village School who were on a field trip. They had just visited the Wells Fargo Exhibit Room in the Wells Fargo Bank on New Montgomery street and now as a climax to their tour were guests of KGO-TV for a brief look into what goes on behind the scenes of television.

Guided by Carole Ann Frye of KGO-TV's promotion department, the classes visited the art department, film room, prop department and several of the studios. Following the tour, 20 students appeared on the popular children's program, "Fun Time With Waldo." After the live telecast, all the students gathered in the studio where Waldo, assisted by his friend "George," entertained the children with a magic show. The show's floor director, Howard Hardin gave a brief explanation of how a TV camera operates and program procedures. The students were accompanied by their teachers, Miss Aileen Schriefer and John Belforte, and room mothers, Mrs. P. Conci and Mrs. W. Tonnissen.

We feel television is so much a part of youngsters' lives that it is important for them to learn what goes on behind the cameras, and how a program develops. With the trend throughout the country toward supplementary educational programs as well as direct TV teaching in the schools, television will become more a part of their lives. In addition, as a career, a whole new field has opened up for young people of today. Television fairly "gobbles" up ideas and programs with an insatiable appetite, and live productions require staffs made up of writers, technicians, artists and other talent. With regular colorcasts and the advent of international television the opportunities will be even greater in our "world of tomorrow" which is just around the corner.

Woodrow Children To Sing, Tell Story Of Song 'Silent Night'

This Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock the children of the Woodrow Wilson elementary school will present their Christmas program in the multi-use room of the school.

All parents and friends are invited to attend and hear the children tell and sing the story of how Father Mohr and Franz Gruber wrote the song "Silent Night."

Indian Cagers Clobber Sonora, Beat Mission; Enter League Tourney

Mike Orlich's Jefferson varsity cagers, beaten but once in six practice starts (as of Monday), set their sights on the Peninsula League Tournament title this week, Wednesday through Friday, on the Capuchino High floor in Millbrae.

The tourney, based on the Acker system of determining a champion, will find each league team facing all others in 20-minute games.

A definite contender for the PL title, the Indians should know by Friday which teams will be the main roadblocks en route to that goal.

Orlich's well-balanced but altitude-shy crew manhandled visiting Sonora High Friday night, 59-35, then Monday here bounced Mission High of San Francisco, 37-27.

Steve Mezzera's improving 30's remained winless by losing to Sonora, 25-19, and to Mission, 28-21.

Guard Barrie Haanen and pivot Dennis Marc gunned the romp over Sonora, each dropping in 13 points. Gary Ryan was next on the charts with 11. The Tribe, using every man on the bench, held the upper hand throughout. Halftime count was 23-17.

Ryan took scoring laurels against Mission with a 13-point effort. Haanen, his hustling guard-mate, potted 9 points. Jeff was in front at the midway mark, 18-13.

Art Banos paced the Jeff 30's in the Sonora fray with 5 points, and hit for 6, as did center Alan Lee, against Mission.

The Indian quints open Peninsula League play early in January.

15 Teams Ready For Cage Debuts In City Leagues

Fifteen teams will be roaring to go this Saturday when play opens in the city-sponsored sixth, seventh and eighth grade basketball leagues on the War Memorial building courts.

The entries warmed up last Saturday in an Acker tournament, which found all squads battling one another for short duration.

In sixth grade play, Ben Franklin's cagers led the pack, followed by Westlake school, Our Lady Of Mercy and Lincoln.

Favored War Memorial won the seventh grade test, trailed by OLPH, Colma and Westlake schools.

OLPH defeated Olympia school in a regulation game for eighth grade honors.

Westmoor Five Stun Favored Palo Alto, But Lose Out, 44-40

Westmoor's varsity basketballers brushed aside the odds and Palo Alto's tremendous height advantage Friday afternoon to chase the favored Vikings down to the wire before losing a 44-40 verdict down south.

Tony Giammona's Rams (he only used six players) overcame a 9-0 first quarter deficit and were even-up at halftime, 18-all. With two 6-5 regulars and one 6-4 standout leading the way, the Vikings managed a 32-28 third quarter lead, but Westmoor caught fire to tie it at 37-all, then went ahead 40-37 with 2½ minutes remaining.

Center Larry Harper, however, then went out on his fifth personal foul and the host five connected on the free throw line to wrap up the contest.

Harper, terrific on the backboards, and guard Ross Holmgren, shared the load for the Rams. Ross bagged eight field goals and a charity toss for 17 points, game high.

Forward Gary Twitty contributed 10 points, Rich Reece got 7, Harper 4, and Bill Dougherty 2.

The Westmoor 30's, spurred by Coach Byron Van Alstyne, broke into the win column after three losses by taking the lightweight game, 29-27. Jim Heick's last-second layup was the clinching tally.

The Rams trailed until midway in the final period when Heick and Bob Goodwin rallied their mates. Jim was tops with 12 points, while Goodwin found the range for 10.

The lightweight Vikes led at the quarter junctures, 7-5, 15-10 and 19-18.

Both Ram teams are 1-3 for the practice season. The varsity participates in the Peninsula League tourney, this Wednesday through Friday, at Capuchino High in Millbrae. All league teams will meet one another, with the winner to be determined by the Acker system.

Brisbane Pin Busters Win First Half Title

Keglers in the Daly City-Colma League rest on their oars the next two weeks, having wrapped up the first round of play Tuesday night at Brentwood Bowl with Brisbane Market taking the undisputed title by a husky margin of 6 games.

The J. Bell-led baysiders eased up this week and dropped two games to Giannini Market. Second place Carmona Chemical fell by the same count to the fast-coming servicemen from Don's Standard.

Globe Tavern held onto third spot though winning but one of three from Vince & Fred, the resurgent liquormen.

Back-in-the-pack United Market registered the lone shutout Tuesday, sweeping the 101 Club.

Other victors by 2-1 scores: Thur Meat over Prudential, DC Cleaners over Val's Redwood Room, and Lou Amrofell over Joe's Nursery.

Second half of loop play begins January 7, with Brisbane a heavy favorite to repeat as the champion.

TRIBE CHIEFTAIN & SEVEN STRONG INDIANS

FOOTBALL'S SENIOR CITIZENS

Verducci Is Nominee For All-American Team

By Roy Huribert

Mayor Joe Verducci of Daly City is one of three Californians nominated for the 1957 Sports Illustrated magazine "Silver Anniversary All-America Football Team," THE RECORD learned today.

Verducci's nomination, made by his alma mater, University of California, was announced by the national sports publication, which annually picks this unique All-America roster to honor the top 25 senior collegiate football lettermen of 25 years ago who have accomplished the most in the intervening years.

The magazine's 1957 team, selected by a distinguished board of nation-wide judges, will be published in the year-end issue of Sports Illustrated. Men named to the team will receive trophies and citations.

Other Californians in nomination are Edward J. O'Connor, formerly of University of North Dakota, and Ray Sparling, ex-USC Trojan end. Both now reside in the Los Angeles area.

A native San Franciscan, "Little Joe" has been director of athletics and head football coach at San Francisco State college since 1950. His latest honor was being named Northern California "Coach Of The Year" by sportswriters for directing the 7 Gator gridders to the Far Western conference title.

Verducci, in compiling a 50-23-1 record at State has guided the Gators to four conference football championships since taking over.

Joe began his athletic career at Mission High in SF where he played halfback on the varsity football squad and won honors as a wrestler. The 5-5, 158-pounder then entered California at Berkeley, where he earned letters in the same sports. He was the smallest football quarterback in the nation at the time.

Verducci produced a champion, Monterey High, the first time he took over a football team in 1934. He then coached at Commerce and Washington high schools, finally moving to Polytechnic, the school of prep champions, in 1935. He remained there until Pearl Harbor.

World War II (42-44) took Joe to Alameda Naval Air Station as coach and athletic officer in the Coast Guard. His Sea Lions were one of the better grid teams in the area during the lean years.

Out of service in '45, Joe returned to Poly and came up with two more championship football teams. In '48 and '49 he was head man for the St. Mary's Gaels at Moraga.

Entering politics six years ago, Verducci had his hands full with many activities. Besides his teaching and coaching responsibilities, he has appeared regularly on TV and radio sports programs, scouts for the pro Chicago Bears and is a part-time newspaper columnist.

Joe and his family of four reside at 118 Wilshire avenue in Westlake.

Troop 277 Prepares 'Gift' Xmas Trees

Girls in Troop 277 are busy preparing about three dozen Christmas trees, fully decorated, to place on children's trays before December 25 at San Francisco hospital.

Doing the work are Susan Banchi, Susan Falconi, Christine Fotenos, Sunny Hershman, Stephanie LeTourneau, Lauree Muller, Janet O'Neill, Robin Orr, Susan Peirano, Phyllis Rubiales, Susan Stendahl, Barbara Weiden and Cheryl Fotenos.

Leaders are Mrs. Mildred Weiden and Mrs. Kal Fotenos.

THESE Daly City and Coastside youngsters will compete Sunday in the All-Northern California "Grand Prix" Quarter Midget races at the San Mateo county fairgrounds. Winners will be eligible for the Grid National Championship, December 28 and 29, at Phenix, Arizona. Left to right: Perry Walker, Kenny Lann, Gene Spinelli, Milt Heise Jr., Don Feifer, Gary Wetel, Mike West and Dave Mason.
